

A special Budget Hearing of the Board of Education of the Carlyle Community Unit School District No. 1 was held in the Carlyle High School Library on Wednesday, September 27, 2017 at 6:20 pm.

Keith Rensing, President, presided over the meeting.

Members present at roll call were Brammeier, Brinkmann, Diekemper, Heinzmann, Jansen, Kampwerth and Rensing.

Others attending the meeting were Joe Novsek, Linda Scott, Joe Wilkerson, Terry Linton, Kerrick Rahm, Dustin Bilbruck, Elizabeth Jansen, Mike Jansen, Tammy Gerstenecker, Mary Rueter, Joe Reinkensmeyer, Chris Quick, Carolyn Boeker, Mark Hodapp, and students from Mr. Reinkensmeyers class - Danielle Lange, Meagan Holtmann, Arionna Perkins, Dakota Myers, Lane Arnold, Riley Roberson, Trent Hart, Kade Berry, Brock Kleiboeker, Nathan Husmann, Cameron Everhart, Tyler Siever, Nick Becker, Yujie Lin, Julie Allen and Tanner Voss.

Mr. Novsek noted that changes were made to the tentative budget. We still have no state budget yet, so it is hard to know what the state categoricals will be for this year. However, we do have a balanced budget. We will be selling the Building Trades house this year, which will bring income, we will be getting some of the categorical money from last year, and we did not replace some of the staff members that resigned or retired this past year. This all helped us to have a balanced budget this year.

There was no participation or comment on the proposed budget from board members or visitors.
